

BRIDGE DROPS - TRAFFIC STOPS

Highway 16 traffic came to a halt Saturday night when the Gold Creek bridge, built in the 1930's, gave up the ghost and dropped into Kleanza Creek.

A truck loaded with cedar poles barely missed going into the water with the old Howe truss structure. The truckdriver said later, "the bridge just dropped away in front of me."

Department of Highways crews were summoned to the site at about 8:40 p.m. and an immediate call went out to other highways districts for emergency Bailey bridge sections with which to replace the 90 foot span. Bailey sections arrived Sunday afternoon and works crews began installation at 5:00 a.m. Monday.

Light traffic was restored late Sunday afternoon after the deck section of the collapsed bridge became solidly wedged on a downstream sandbar. Detour approaches were hastily bulldozed in to provide a temporary crossing.

A new highway bridge about one mile downstream from the Gold Creek bridge will not be ready for traffic for several weeks. Decking tenders have been called for the new structure but to date have not been awarded. A plank crosswalk was constructed at the new bridge Sunday morning to accommodate stranded bus passengers and other emergency foot traffic. Highway 16 regular traffic was restored late Monday after crews completed installation of the Bailey bridge at the old site.

ZONING BYLAW 401

Public Hearing Tuesday Attracts Forty People

A public hearing, called for the purpose of receiving oral submissions pertaining to Terrace's proposed new Zoning bylaw No. 401, attracted about 40 people on Tuesday evening.

Municipal Council, administration officers and members of the Terrace advisory planning commission, heard nine written submissions and three verbal submissions during the two hour hearing. Town planning engineer, G. N. Worsley, was also on hand to answer any queries and explain motivation in mapping out zones for the new bylaw. The bylaw was drawn up in alliance with a town planning study completed by Mr. Worsley last December. It calls for re-zoning of several areas in the community, and Tuesday's hearing was designed to give ratepayers an opportunity to submit any objections they might have to the zoning recommendations.

A petition carrying 119 signatures and voicing objection to re-zoning of properties near Skeena Secondary School, came in for extensive discussion. Mr. Gerry Dufus spoke on behalf of the property owners concerned and asked for a motivation explanation from Mr. Worsley.

Worsley pointed out that he eventually visualizes the Bench area as one of Terrace's heaviest residential areas, and that main traffic arterials should, of necessity lead from this area into light industrial and commercial zones. He said that industrial and commercial areas should be located in the same block of land.

Volunteers and part-time staff of the Community Centre received a unanimous vote of appreciation during the Commission meeting, for interior painting projects completed recently. The commission

More Work Slated For Community Centre

Work will begin shortly on the remodelling and completion of kitchen facilities in the Terrace Community Centre, it was reported this week.

Decision to commence with the installation of new kitchen counters and sinks, designed to make the Centre suitable for catering to any large event, came Monday night at a meeting of the Terrace Recreation Commission.

It was decided to paint the exterior of the building and colors will be selected soon. The commission will attempt to select colors that will blend with those chosen for the Centennial Library-Museum building which will occupy the same block of land.

Financial reports submitted to the meeting showed that Community Centre revenue is above the budgeted estimate so far but a spokesman for the recreation commission said that summer and fall expenditures will probably bring a levelling off. During the past

PILOT AND SEVEN PASSENGERS of this Falcon fan-jet aircraft lost no time getting to Terrace from New York City on Tuesday. The trip took only seven hours. Pilot of the plane, R. L. Therrien, told the Herald photographer the aircraft has a top speed of 530 miles an hour. The aircraft is owned by Celanese Corporation of America. Names of Tuesday's passengers were unavailable. They are believed to be executives of the company, here on a "secret" fishing trip.

Former Terrace Mill Merges For New Plywood Plant

Two pioneer B.C. forest companies, one of which is a former Terrace company, have announced they will merge into a $4,500,000 enterprise and build a $2,000,000 plywood plant near Kamloops.

Terrace Forest Products Ltd. which had its formation in Terrace and was sold in 1961 to Charles Bennett, is one of the companies involved in the merger. The other company is Balco Forest Products and the new company will be known as Balco Forest Products (1966) Ltd.

If Balcon of Balco will be present of the new company and Charles Bennett, who was former manager of the Lakelse Motor Hotel, the Shopping Centre, Park Hotel complex in Terrace, has named vice president.

The pair announced they will immediately start implementing plans for construction of a plywood plant at Hefley Creek.

First phase of the operation will be a veneer plant and the new company will eventually employ 100 men in the plant and another 100 in the woods. Annual payroll will be about $2,500,000 and annual sales are expected in excess of $5,000,000.

Gateway Lumber of Ashcroft, which is also run by Charles Bennett, will be managed by the new company.

Melting Pot . . .

WEEKS PAT on the back came via Mrs. Parker Mills who called to tell us that cheerleaders from Riverside Elementary did an excellent job of inspiring track and field athletes last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mills said the youngsters were decked out in colorful costumes and had a series of pep calls memorized right down to a fine point. Congratulations kids!

A TWO YEAR struggle ended this week for C. J. "Jim" Norrington, when a road map was finally published on which the population of Terrace is listed as between five and ten thousand. In the past, most road maps have listed us as being a one-horse town with only 1600 or 2000 people. Jim Norrington has writer's cramp from penning a barrage of letters to government officials and oil companies in an attempt to let the truth be known.

TERRACE POSITRACS car club has managed to do almost the impossible. It has obtained permission from the federal government to use the Woodcock airstrip for drag racing sessions. A fellow known as Bernie, at Skeena Service, told us that about 35 cars made the scene for a racing bout two weeks ago, and everyone said the afternoon proved up A-Okay. There's more lined up for this weekend.

KEEP AN eye out for ABE — it's on the way!

What idiocy is this?

IT TOOK 50 million Frenchmen to convince the Americans during World War I, but apparently it only takes 2,600 Frenchmen to convince the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in 1966.

The CBC is determined to build a French language radio station in Vancouver even though, at the last census, there were a mere 2,600 people listed in all of British Columbia as being French speaking only.

From the 16,000 people who were listed as speaking neither English or French, we readily admit there is probably no comment.

But from the 1,552,560 people listed as being English-speaking only, there can be but one comment, "Oooh, that smarts!"

We're getting a little tired of having French-Canadianism rammed down our free-and-easy Western Canadian throats; and when the CBC starts spending OUR money for the ramrod it's time we set up a full-throated English roar.

We need live, English-type television in Northern B.C. We need roads, airports, wharves, housing and an endless number of other important things throughout the entire province of B.C. What we do NOT need is a French language FM broadcasting outlet in Vancouver!

In fact, we're becoming more and more convinced that another thing we don't need in B.C. is the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. The new premier of Quebec Daniel Johnson, has already gone on record as planning to eliminate the CBC in that province. He wants to start up a Quebec Broadcasting Network. Perhaps we too, should force the CBC kooks back into their Toronto corner.

Make no mistake, we're not against having French speaking Canadians join us in the good life out here in the West. We're not even against having the French language taught in our schools.

What we are against, is having our tax dollar flipped up the flue in an effort to appease the handful of Frenchmen who already live in B.C. Nor do we like catering to the whims of the handful of negationists who live in the CBC's ivory tower.

We catered when they took Christ out of context. We catered when they saturated us with sex symbols. We catered when they chopped the props from under Seven Days — but this latest bit of idiocy is simply too ridiculous to tolerate.

Woman's worth - some sum . . .

Housewives — next time your better half comes in from his day in the woods or at the plant or at the office and asks what you've been doing with yourself all day, feel free to throw a few of the following figures at him.

A leading Canadian university recently completed a survey that will give the housewife new status. Her worth has been measured in dollars per week and it works out to a sizeable sum, particularly when it's carried into a yearly tally.

Cooking, table setting, serving @ $2. per hour $50. Dishwashing @ $1.25 per hour $17.50. Child-care (baby-sitters, non-union rate) @ 50c per hour $17.50: Routine housework @ $1.25 per hour $6.25 Ironing (this should be piece work) @ $1.25 per hour $6.25.

Add 25 per cent for miscellaneous work such as chauffeuring the kids to and from school, or gardening and you have a grand total of $150 per week or $7,800 per year. Tender loving care should be worth about $200 a year so add that on and you're an $8,000 a year woman.

Your services are worth a few dollars lady—even though you do have to work an 84 hour week in order to get almost everything done.

Anybody for raising the basic minimum wage?

A happy trend . . .

CANADIANS HAVE poured so many millions of dollars into new schools and more teachers in recent years that they must often be hard put to know where it all goes and if they are getting their money's worth.

Recent evidence from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics serves as a reminder that there has indeed been a very appreciable improvement in the level of national education within our lifetime.

Back in 1931, notes DBS, only 33 per cent of Canadians between the ages of 15 and 19 were still at school. As late as 1941, the figure was no higher than 36 per cent; even in 1951 it was only up to 41 per cent.

The really big change came in the next decade, between 1951 and 1961, by which time the percentage had reached 58. More heartening still is the accelerating rate at which it has been climbing since 1961. By the end of last year more than 67 per cent of those between 15 and 19 were enrolled in school.

In other words, the proportion of school goers in this age group has more than doubled in the past 35 years. This is surely the most important if least remembered by-product of rising living standards.

As the Economic Council of Canada has pointed out, our educational progress in this technological age leaves much to be desired. Still, it's nice to know that there has been some — and that today's teenagers are getting a longer and better education than their fathers and mothers did.

Two Bridge Awards On Stewart-Cassiar

Contracts were awarded this week for two bridges on the Stewart-Cassiar road.

Canadian Iron Foundries Ltd. (Western Bridge Division) of Vancouver won a contract in the amount of $384,696 for the fabrication and erection of structural steelwork for the Bell-Irving bridge.

Bridge number two is the Stewart-Hyder span which was awarded in the amount of $373,961 to Benray Bridge Company Ltd. of Prince George.

The awards were announced Monday by highways Minister P. A. Gagliardi. In a telegram to the Herald, Mr. Gagliardi said work on the two bridge projects will begin shortly.

In 1964-65 there were 1,320 publicly-controlled schools in operation in British Columbia.

Weekly Sermon

by REV. ARTHUR GELLERT

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Once again vacation time is upon us. Most people and families are planning to get away for several weeks, or at least for several days. Some will be able to leave the routine of daily work and toil and seek rest, recreation and new vitality through a trip into different parts of the country, or a visit with relatives and friends. Others will seek it in the sun on a sandy beach, or in the quietness of a tucked away cabin. It seems all are in search of a quality which can best be described as "The Joy of Life."

And rightly so! Because the demands of our modern living are so exacting that few could carry on indefinitely. Thus we need the occasional break. However, some will come back from their vacation more exhausted, than they were when they left. Others may be rested in body, but still lack the inner tranquillity and peace they looked for. They looked for a great and satisfying experience which was to bring joy and happiness, but it turned out to be rather "flat." The reason may be as manifold as life itself. Maybe it rained too much, or it was too hot and not as friendly as one expected, or dusty; perhaps the friends were not as friendly as one expected, or the car gave too much trouble. Whatever the cause may be, it just was not what one expected.

May I suggest a different source of joy available to all of us. One which does not depend upon a successful vacation or even the lack of any vacation. Namely the joy that comes from knowing the Lord Jesus Christ as one's personal Saviour, and the engaging in spiritual exercises. There is one book in the New Testament which, more than any other, puts the emphasis on "Joy" and "Rejoicing." It is St. Paul's Epistle to the Philippians. In this Epistle, Paul points out that many of the well known activities and spiritual exercises will bring much joy to the faithful Christian. Paul writes that there is "Joy in Prayer" and also "Joy in Suffering." There is "joy" in service, and a special "joy" in the knowledge of Christ and in spiritual progress. Some of these sources of joy are obvious. Others will take much meditation to discover.

Why not make the reading and meditation on the epistle to the Philippians part of your plans for this year's vacation. I assure you that five or ten minutes daily spent with this book for two or three weeks will leave a spiritual impact on your life which will remain long after the "joys" or "disappointments" of your vacation will have been forgotten.

Columbia Cel Team Takes Soccer Win

The league leading, and still undefeated soccer team, sponsored by Columbia Cellulose, came up with another big win at the weekend. They were supported by a large crowd at Skeena Secondary School grounds Sunday evening when they walked over Kitimat Internationals 4 to 1.

The game got underway at 6 p.m. and right from the first minute of play the Terrace team launched strong attacks, backed by good defence. At the 10:05 mark Manuel Pereira scored from about 30 yards to give Terrace a 1-0 lead. Then Lilli made it 2-0 for Terrace.

With this score the sides were changed. Just at the beginning of the second period Lilli scored again to make it 3-0 for Columbia Cellulose. This was followed by attack after attack rolled against the Internationals, who appeared helpless against the brilliant playing of the Terrace team. There was some passing that was almost professional. The pressure was on and Lilli scored from a nice play by play from the entire front line to make the game 4-0 for Columbia Cellulose.

In the last minutes of the game Internationals were given a penalty by the referee to make the standing 4-1. This did not discourage the Terrace team which bounced right back at the Internationals.

Columbia Cellulose's win qualified them for the semi-final to be played in Kitimat on Sunday, June 26 at 6 p.m. against Sparta of Kitimat. The winner will play for the Dominion Day trophy.

A farewell was extended to Mr. for England and will be missed at Westcott who is leaving Terrace the battle for the championship.

A special thanks to the supporters and spectators as well as to radio station CFTK, under Al Parfitt, and the local newspaper for the complete coverage of our games.

Terrace Boy Scouts To Visit Penticton

A Scout troop of 33 boys and Scout master, the Reverend George Keenleyside will leave Terrace by chartered bus on Thursday, July 7 to attend a Scout Jamboree in Penticton, July 9 to 16.

The group of 15 Scouts from Terrace will be joined by Scouts from Prince Rupert and the Queen Charlotte Islands. Two assistant leaders will be picked up enroute. A day will be spent in Prince George where the bus will make a stop before continuing on to the Jamboree camp. It is expected some three thousand Scouts and Scouters will be in attendance.

Nearly every community in B.C. and the Yukon will be sending representatives as well as several troops from the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii.

The event will be called the "Adventure Jamboree" with a theme of "Scouting ventures in this Modern Age into the Land, Water, Air and Space," and will be designed to demonstrate the international friendship aspect of the movement and that the Scout program is keeping up with the times.

Doug Renshaw, district commissioner of Terrace district, will attend and will be attached to headquarters.

Terrace Scouts who will attend the Jamboree are: E. Sande, R. Dakin, F. Watson, J. Dando, S. Hsiop, R. Samson, D. Parmenter, D. Kinnear, J. Kerby, J. Wilson, A. Jacques, M. Seymour, A. Inselberg, T. Casey and D. Smith.

Around the Town

Word has been received in town of the serious illness of Mrs. Walter Yeo, a former resident of Terrace. Mrs. Yeo is a patient in Vancouver General Hospital having suffered a stroke last Saturday morning, June 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnstone and Mrs. Nels Morrison returned via C. P. Airlines Sunday from Victoria where they were called upon the sudden illness of their mother, Mrs. E. T. Kenney. Mrs. Kenney is a patient in Royal Jubilee hospital in Victoria. Her condition is reported to be improving.

Some people get there by pull, others by push.

RICKEY MANN

Singer Judy Ginn (right) and accordionist Rickey Mann (left) will be featured entertainers in the Kitimat Kiw Dominion Day program in Kitimat this year. The evening entertainment program, which takes place in the H School auditorium at 8 p.m., is the climax of day-long activities which begin with a pancake breakfast in City Centre. Miss Ginn and Mr. Mann will be joined by a combo from Vancouver for the evening entertainment.

Centennial Caravan Here On Sunday

The B.C. Centennial Caravan will be a sight worth seeing if advance brochures received here this week are any indication.

Scheduled to open in Terrace for public viewing on Monday night, the Caravan offers nine chapters of B.C. history, all done up with special staging, lighting, sound and electronic effects.

Moving, life-size figures of pioneers of the province will be featured in each separate section of the display which runs the gamut from the year 1778 to the year 1966.

The caravan will assemble on the Community Centre grounds. It is formed by combining two travelling vans, specially constructed for the purpose. Total combined size of the caravan when it is open for viewing is 48' x 20'.

Dudley G. Little, MLA for Skeena, will officiate at the caravan's opening ceremony, scheduled for 1:00 p.m. Sunday. The caravan will remain here for two days.

There is no charge for admission to the display. However local Centennial committee officials have requested that all children visiting the caravan, be supervised by accompanying adults.

Pioneer Couple Visit Terrace Retire To Victoria

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. Kirkaldy gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Little on Sunday evening, June 18, to bid farewell to the couple who left on July 19 to make their home in Victoria.

"Sam" and "Lee" Kirkaldy popular pioneer citizens, have come to Terrace to live during 1920's.

Mr. Kirkaldy retired as postmaster in Terrace in 1955, after thirty years continued service. Mr. Kirkaldy was a member of the post office staff before her husband. After their marriage continued to serve on the staff as his help-mate.

At the Saturday night buffet supper party Mr. and Mrs. Kirkaldy were presented with a farewell gift and received the best wishes of old friends of many years duration.

Future School Sites Studied By Board

Future school building sites in the Terrace School district came in for serious consideration at a recent meeting of the board of school trustees.

Soaring land prices and scarcity of property in suitable acreage particularly within Terrace Municipality, were two of the major factors discussed by the board.

The secretary-treasurer was requested to obtain authority from the department of education to expend any surplus referendum funds for the purpose of obtaining future building sites.

In other matters discussed by the board it was learned that the obsolete Riverside Elementary school facilities will be pressed into service again in September due to the fact that only one building of the new E. T. Kenney primary complex is expected to be ready for the new term. Delay in producing the plans was blamed for a contract setback which has changed the E. T. Kenney completion date. Foundations have been laid and work is now proceeding quickly, however.

The Thornhill Elementary addition is already partially in use and work is progressing at the estimated pace. Kiti-K'Shan primary, adjacent to Cassie Hall Elementary will be completed in time for September commencement and the vocational wing at Skeena Secondary school is well underway, and expect to be ready for September classes.

Seven New Fires Reported Last Week

Seven new forest fires have been reported in the Prince Rupert district and of these, five are still burning. All burning fires are reported as being under control. Fires still burning are located in the Hazelton, Telkwa, Smithers and Kitimat ranger districts.

New fires have been caused by lightning, recreational use and industrial activities. The lightning fires were reported by patrol aircraft and as the summer season approaches, these aircraft will be spending more and more hours in the air and will be investigating all unknown smokes.

To date, there have been seventy fires, which have burned approximately 1030 acres and have cost $3,900 to control.

The five day forecast calls for spotty rainfall throughout the district with cool temperatures. We would, however, draw to your attention that major fires are now burning in the Prince George District to the East of us and also in the Yukon Territory, and we suggest that no further indication for forest fire's potential damage is necessary.

Terrace JW's Plan Convention Visit

Over 50 Jehovah's Witnesses in the Terrace area plan to attend a district convention in Vancouver's Empire Stadium, August 3-7.

A crowd of 35,000 is expected from all parts of the Pacific Northwest.

Mr. Walter Schmidt, presiding minister of the Terrace congregation, said Monday, "Complete cafeteria and rooming facilities are being provided. Hotels, motels and private homes in the Greater Vancouver area are being contacted for room listings, so all delegates are assured of having accommodations."

A giant computer will keep track of every room registered with Expo's accommodation bureau in a 50-mile radius of Montreal.

Killex kills more lawn weeds than any other lawn treatment

We guarantee it.

Used as directed, Green Cross Killex guarantees results—or we will refund the full purchase price.

We can make this guarantee because Killex contains a triple combination of components which kill more hard-to-kill lawn weeds than any other lawn treatment. Even where famous 2,4-D has failed, Killex has provided outstanding control over such problem lawn weeds as: Chickweed, Clover, Bedstraw, Black Medick, Heal-all, Ground Ivy, Knotweed, Shepherd's Purse, and of course Dandelions and Plantains.

Killex is economical, too. One ounce of Killex to one gallon of water weed-treats 250 sq. ft. of lawn. Yet for all its effectiveness, Killex is safe on most lawn grasses.

Even the best weed killers can fail sometimes. Killex is an exception.

Second Place Win for Terrace Loggers

Terrace Loggers baseball club returned home Monday for a long, hard battle in driving to the top of a weekend ball tournament in Hazelton.

The Loggers played four long games in the five team fixture, were finally ransacked by Port All-Stars, who were rested for the go, after having played only two games, — one day.

Terrace powered their way over Telkwa club in the opener on Monday morning, by beating pitcher Joe Watson, with nine hits and three stolen bases. The Loggers played the Kitwanga Vulcans at 1 o'clock and came out losing to two at the hands of home-pitching Wilford Wilson. It just had to be the most over-hyped hurler in the Bulkley League, and his team is in hot in that league.

Loggers again played Telkwa on Monday morning and took an early lead of eleven to two before Telkwa suddenly swarmed to life. They came back with a barrage of hits combined with Terrace errors, within one run of tying the ball game before they were eliminated.

Terrace came back at three o'clock to play Kitwanga in one of the best crowd-thrillers in the tournament. It had all the glitter and color that the fans could want. Reckless base-running, power ball game to the bitter end, error hitting, a few errors, and an even ball game to the bitter end. Terrace finally came out on top after being ahead four times, by two runs.

Red L'Estrange came out of semi-retirement to catch this game. Rocky Larocque started on the mound, and stayed until the seventh, when he was pulled and Fred Philpot took over mound duties. Manager L'Estrange batted out two hits, his first in about four years, both were for extra bases. Short stop Bobby Panton was breezing along with a 540 batting average and Rollie Fairclough was starting to hit the ball. Terrace picked up the win, but Loggers were getting leg weary.

Gerry McPhail twisted an ankle at second base. Jack Philpot was having leg trouble. Third baseman Keith Larson, was just plain worn out; and there was still the All-Stars team to demolish.

The final game got underway at seven o'clock. In the first inning Fred Philpot, batting second in the line-up, batted a tremendous drive that looked like a winner out to left field. Rupert fielder, Roger Smith got back to the fence, jumped high in the air and stabbed the ball, robbing Freddie of his second home-run of the tournament.

All-Stars picked up two runs in the second on an error to Keith Larson and a triple to right-centre. Terrace loaded the bases in the third, but had no one left to drive in any runs. Loggers again loaded the bases in the fifth, but couldn't squeeze anyone home to score. Rupert picked up one for almost every inning and went on to win. Manager Red L'Estrange said Tuesday that the Terrace boys played tremendous ball.

There were only 10 players in the dugout on Saturday. Three of the top players were not out either day. Spud Larson, Johnny Miller, and Don Panton couldn't make the trip. They may have made the difference. Bobby Panton won the top hitting award, getting 10 for nineteen

Dispatch

by Paul Bogelund

The Legion welcomes Miss Marie Colebank and Mrs. Edith Wawinsky, who were both initiated at the last general meeting. Applications for membership were approved for Clifford H. Gailey, Charles F. Deane, Bernard P. Rowe and Donald P. Nelson.

Comrade S. N. G. Kirkaldy was presented with a desk stand and a paper knife, in recognition of his many years as a Legionaire and a hardworking member of Branch No. 13. Comrade Kirkaldy and his family will be leaving Terrace in late July to take up residence on Vancouver Island. As a suitable send-off from Terrace, a Kirkaldy Night will be held at the Legion premises on July 15.

The next sports meet will be held in Terrace on June 29; once again we plead for assistance from parents and other interested members of the community, to assist us with all the many tasks required to organize and run a successful sports meet. Please contact Nick Nattress or your branch secretary.

Of special interest to all you Bingo fans — the Legion auditorium will be open each Thursday night, throughout the summer, for the weekly Bingo game. The new jack pot starts out with $250. See you Thursday night at the Legion auditorium.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

by Carl Sandburg

published by

Harcourt, Brace and World Inc.

Sandburg's Abraham Lincoln is the biography of an American who has become a legend and a part of the history of the USA. Carl Sandburg's ability as a poet and a biographer make this book a masterpiece, beautifully written, sometimes singing, sometimes sad but always a portrait of the man Abraham Lincoln as he was known by his family, friends and countrymen.

This book is a condensed version of Sandburg's original six volume edition "The Prairie Years and The War Years."

Carl Sandburg grew up in Lincoln County and knew men who remembered Lincoln. Through his years of research, he put together the monumental biography of the man who was loved by many, hated by others, who's character contained weakness as well as strength, who rose from a humble beginning to hold the highest office in his country.

Carl Sandburg has written a magnificent biography of a man, his life, and the history of his time.

Retirement Tea At Villa Ax-K'San

Well-known Thornhill hostess, Mrs. Alatheia Cox held a final afternoon tea in her lovely home, The Villa Ax-K'San, Saturday, June 18 prior to retirement from the entertainment scene.

With the Villa lounge filled with lovely flowers, yellow glads, pink carnations, and blue iris, attractively arranged, Mrs. Cox entertained a few of her many friends.

A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by guests who were present.

The guest list included Mrs. Catherine Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Murdock Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tryssenaar of Kitimat, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bellamy, Mr. and Mrs. W. Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLaughlin.

Mesdames Sylvia Macdonald and Norma Bellamy, acted as hostesses, for Mrs. Cox who "sat back" and appreciated their assistance.

Centennial Park Proceeds Slowly

Work in Thornhill Centennial Park is proceeding slowly. Work parties are being organized to meet at the park on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 6 p.m. and Sundays at 10 a.m. in an attempt to complete the park as soon as possible. With assistance, the children's playground could be ready for use during the summer holidays.

Thornhill Centennial committee is still trying to locate pioneers of this area who were born before December 31, 1891. Silver medallions will be presented to them to commemorate their part in the development of Canada.

Outstanding science films from 70 countries will be shown at Expo in a program called "Insight 67."

Beginners Feted At Thornhill School

Children who will be part of next years' grade one class at Thornhill Elementary School were welcomed to the school Wednesday by Mrs. W. Harper.

Mrs. Harper, who teaches grade one in Thornhill school, said they were a wonderful group of youngsters and the morning activities were enjoyed by 48 children who attended.

Tickets to the June 24 musical and dramatic production at Thornhill Elementary School are now on sale. Students from grades 4 to 7 will be participating in the program consisting of a dramatic production by D. Dosser and musical selections sung by the choir, with Miss J. Harrod directing.

Tickets may be purchased from the students. The price is 50c for adults and 25c for children.

Curtain time is 8 p.m., June 27, at 8 p.m. when the association holds its first general meeting.

Everything Ready For Kindergarten

The first registration for enrollment in the Thornhill co-operative kindergarten will take place at Thornhill Elementary School on June 27, at 8 p.m. when the association holds its first general meeting.

A teacher and a classroom have been obtained and the first classes will begin with the September school term.

Election of officers to manage the affairs of Thornhill kindergarten will take place at the meeting along with a report to members on the arrangements made so far.

All Thornhill residents who are interested in the kindergarten are welcome and parents who have children who will be attending kindergarten classes are urged to register their children at the meeting. The registration fee is $5.

Terrace Needs Housing . . .

—by Ruth M. Hallock

Robert "Bob" Hallor is one of the dedicated young men of today's society, but his dedication is sometimes hard-pressed to withstand the pressures brought about by people living under adverse housing conditions.

People and housing conditions are Bob Hallor's business. He is Terrace's public health inspector and he's worried about sub-standard housing in Terrace. Unpleasantness and overcrowding which are obvious follow-ups to insufficient housing, simply deepen the frowns in Bob Hallor's brow.

Two weeks ago Bob volunteered an afternoon to take me on a tour of Terrace, just to have a look at some of the conditions under which families are forced to live because of our increasing housing shortage.

SHOULD BE CONDEMNED

Many of the stops we made prompted him to shake his head in what could only be termed despair. "You'll see a lot of houses like this, which we should actually be condemning, but we know full well that if we do condemn these places, the people living in them have no place else to go," Bob said. "With the housing shortage in town, we just can't be too strict."

We visited a lot of homes — we talked with a lot of housewives and we came to several conclusions.

DEFINITE NEED

Terrace has a definite need for improved housing, for mortgage money with which to build new homes, and for rental accommodation for families in the "low income" bracket. But Terrace building contractors and potential housing developers say the government's "tight money" policy strangles their plans at infancy. Individual families that have outgrown their present homes, tell us they are unable to obtain financing for larger accommodation because they are already classed as "home-owners" and thus ineligible for loans under the National Housing Act.

NHA PARADOX

This seems rather paradoxical

because Canada's National Housing Act is supposed to offer facilities designed to aid in the improvement of housing and living conditions. It functions through Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, which is the federal housing agency. Among the interests with which CMHC concerns itself are urban growth and development, mortgage lending, improved housing design and construction and, most important, provision of accommodation to meet the needs of "special groups" such as senior citizens, families of low income and university students.

After touring Terrace on a windy Friday afternoon, I'm convinced we have more than our share of these "special groups." All that remains is for us to convince Central Mortgage and Housing of the need.

RUPERT SOLUTION

Prince Rupert isn't having too much difficulty in doing its convincing. That city already has several low rental housing units in use and they are now looking for a suitable site on which to build another 100. Prince Rupert city officials told me in a telephone interview that the low rental housing program in the coast city has proven very successful. The highest rent asked for a modern three bedroom house is $90 per month.

In Terrace, three bedroom dwellings are renting for as much as $250 per month — if and when you can find them. The average two bedroom dwelling rents for about $150 per month and there are one bedroom houses renting at $100 per month. There are one room shacks renting for $40 a month and sometimes more, depending on whether they have a bath or a path.

The City of Prince Rupert supplies building sites for low rental housing units and CMHC, together with the government, handles financing.

LONG WAITING LISTS

We could go into detail regarding the requisites in order to qualify for NHA building loans at the single family level, but this information is readily available from any Terrace real estate dealer. All you have to do is ask. The requisites for project housing are the details we're really interested in and they aren't nearly so clearly defined. At least two Terrace businessmen, (I asked them), have had flat turndowns in recent months on proposed housing projects. The reasons given were nebulous but the waiting lists that contain names of families wanting decent homes are anything BUT nebulous. They are as long as a logger's arm!

HOW DO YOU GET LOAN?

Among them is an attractive young mother of six. She and her husband tuck the youngsters away every night in a very crowded four room house. The house is located in one of Terrace's "residential" areas, but it has no water supply and an old fashioned privy graces the backyard. This busy mother has to carry water from a neighbor's house.

Looking wistfully into the afternoon sun, she said, "If I just had running water — I'd feel like a queen." She told us that after scraping up enough spare cash to buy a building lot in Thornhill, she and her husband haven't even enough money left to buy cement for foundations. Is it any wonder she asked, "Just how does a person get one of these NHA loans anyway?"

RULE OF SILENCE

Another woman cried as she told us of her family of six crowded into a two bedroom house. The place needs paint and a new septic tank. The old one has overflowed onto the children's small patch of play area.

Recently her landlord raised the rent to $75 a month. "Rising costs," he said. She didn't complain. She's a wise woman who knows it's almost impossible to find another place to live in Terrace. If she doesn't keep her outraged feelings to herself she might end up on the short end of that long waiting list.

NINE IN TWO

Then there's the house on South Kalum that has all the discomforts of pseudo-modern living. It has two rooms, no water supply, no bathroom, not even a front step. It also has nine people, all clamoring for breathing space. Yet, Bob Hallor, our public health inspector, says that by law, each person in a dwelling place "shall have" 383 cubic feet of air space.

LOTS OF LUCK!

Bob Hallor is moving to Quesnel soon. He hopes the situation there will be easier

TWO FAMILIES live in this small house. At least the family on the ground floor has sufficient light to make life bearable. The cellar-dwellers are not so fortunate.

REMEMBER THESE? Well they still exist — right in the middle of Terrace. This one accommodates a family of eight that cannot find another place to live.

A PLASTIC PIPE drains kitchen sink runoff onto the ground underneath this house. It has two rooms and provides shelter for nine people.

I didn't want to discourage him but I don't think he'll find much change. All of the north is suffering a housing shortage. People are ready for the north — but the north isn't ready for people.

URGENT INVITATION

After talking to some of those in Terrace who are strapped by high rents and stymied financially when they attempt to build their own homes, I think I'll invite one politician, one NHA man, and one CMHC man to accompany me the next time I take a tour of the town. Might throw in a Councillor for good measure!

One afternoon would convince them there is a need for more mortgage and development money. In fact it might only take 10 minutes if they talked to a busy, but unhappy mother, with tears in her eyes.

RENT FOR THIS cast-off truck box is $20 a month. Nothing quite so luxurious as indoor plumbing is included.

ROOF THAT AN NHA LOAN can change the whole face of things is this comparison. The photograph at left shows present housing for a family of five. In less than a month they'll move into the new home at right. It has three bedrooms, a full basement, two fireplaces and a rumpus room and will cost the breadwinner approximately $122 a month to repay. He and his family are some of the lucky ones. There are many others less fortunate.

BROWNIES GUIDES RANGERS

Close to 43 mothers and daughters gathered at Gim's restaurant on Monday evening for the annual banquet of First Skeena Guide Company.

Each mother was presented with a corsage of yellow mums. Bouquets of mums and iris decorated the head table.

Guide leader, Mrs. H. Smith, expressed her pleasure at seeing so many mothers present, and Lt. Mrs. Tom Kenna proposed the toast to the Queen. Guide Diane Porter was chosen to propose the toast to the mothers to which Mrs. Spencer Marr responded.

Following dinner, Guide Sharon Fisher introduced guest speaker, the Reverend G. Keenleyside. Rev. Keenleyside stressed the importance of the Guide motto "Be Prepared," by learning in guiding how to prepare ones self to become a competent adult.

Commissioner Mrs. Joan Sparks presented badges to the following successful Guides: citizenship, Diane Porter, Sharon Fisher, Marian Dando, Cathy Macintosh and Linda Ramsay (who was absent); laundress, Cathy Macintosh, Sandra Marr and Sharon Fisher; hostess, Terry Kenna.

Captain Smith thanked commissioner Sparks for the many hours of work she has spent with the Guides.

Commissioner Sparks in reply, spoke briefly on the "polish of a Guide," enabling her to stand out in society. She emphasized the benefit of participating in public speaking.

Guide leader Mrs. Tom Kenna gave instructions regarding summer camp in July at Skoglund's Point.

Cathy Macintosh lead the group in a closing prayer followed by the singing of "taps."

On Thursday, June 16, mothers and Girl Guides of the Second Skeena Guide Company met in the Silver Tip Cafe for the annual mother and daughter banquet.

Reverend G. Keenleyside was guest speaker of the evening and also led the group in grace prior to dinner.

Guide Marilyn Rugg proposed the toast to the Queen and Guide Alice Hansen paid tribute to the mothers. Mrs. Hansen spoke in response.

Company leader, Nicky Sluyter was presented with a leather wallet. Guide Patsy Fisher made the presentation on behalf of company leader and members.

Master of ceremonies for the evening, Guide Joan Hansen called upon Guide Gayle Seaman to introduce Guide Commissioner Mrs. Joan Sparks.

Commissioner Sparks expressed her enjoyment in working with Guides during the past year and voiced her appreciation for the assistance given the girls by their mothers in the process of earning their proficiency badges. She also paid tribute to Rev. Keenleyside for his help and co-operation.

Reverend Keenleyside then addressed the group, dwelling on "The Challenge of Tomorrow" and how the Guide's way of life should fit in.

Captain Mrs. Both thanked the mothers for attending and for their assistance during the year. She expressed regret that Guide leader, Mrs. Morrison was unable to be present due to illness in the family.

Diane Both was presented with her "childcare" badge.

The evening came to a close with Mrs. Vi Seaman leading the group in a sing-song, closing with the Guide "taps."

Twenty-five members of Second Kitsumkalum Guide Company and their leaders, Mrs. Francis and Mrs. Hamer, enjoyed an overnight camping expedition at the weekend. Despite rain and hail they followed trails and played games and thoroughly enjoyed the outing, which included meals served from a campfire.

Of the group 19 girls passed their fire brigade tests to receive badges and two received toymaker badges.

The Kitsumkalum Guide camp will be held at Kinsmen Kamp at Lakelse Lake. Taking part will be both first and second groups and one girl from Kitimat.

Guides Pat Bass, Phyllis Turner and Laurie Hamer will be attending Guide camp at Haines, Alaska on July 7. They are raising the money for the trip by participating in car washes and lawn mowing. They are available for these jobs by phoning VI 3-2865.

CRADLE ROLL

One birth was recorded during the week at Mills Memorial Hospital when a son was born to:—
Mr. and Mrs. George Greenlaw, on June 17.

Around the Town

Two members of the Terrace Public Library board recently returned from attending library conventions. Mrs. Ralph Easton was in Prince George to attend the North Central Public Library Commission meeting and Mrs. Robert Christl attended the British Columbia Library Ass'n convention in Burnaby. Both report having interesting and stimulating meetings.

OBITUARY

MRS. WASYLINA MAXSAM
Terrace, B.C.

Mrs. Wasylina Maxsam, a resident of Terrace for close to 40 years, died in Mills Memorial Hospital, June 17, at the age of 74.

Born in the Ukraine on December 9, 1891, the deceased came to Canada in 1924 where she resided in Anyox, B.C. In 1928 she came to Terrace to make her permanent home. The late Mrs. Maxsam was predeceased by her husband ten years ago.

She leaves to mourn her loss, one daughter, Mrs. William Richmond of Burns Lake, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from Kingdom Hall at 3 p.m. on Monday, June 20, Mr. Walter Schmidt, officiating.

Interment was made in Kitsumkalum cemetery. Pallbearers were: Doug Wentzell, Larry Melin, Gerald Prekaski, Dave Gibson, Peter Magnus and Jergin Matthian.

Public Hearing

cial zones required buffer areas which are normally provided through residential no. 3 zoning. These allow for high rise and apartment type buildings, lodges and other similar construction.

Councillor French pointed out that sawmills and the department of public works maintenance buildings were located in the Skeena Secondary area long before many of the property owners listed on the petition constructed their homes. He indicated it was logical to assume that light industrial development would occur in the area, and he stressed that town planning had been made on a long term basis.

"These things eventually HAVE to be," Councillor French said.

Among other submissions made, was one from Terrace Equipment Sales and Terrace Transfer in which it was pointed out that an apparent insufficiency in allocations of property allowed for light industrial usage was evident. Several other businessmen added voices to this submission.

Still other submissions prompted questions from interested members of the public gallery.

Following adjournment of the hearing, a meeting of Council together with members of the advisory town planning commission, was called for the purpose of giving preliminary study to the submissions.

It was recommended by Councillor French, backed by Councillors Norton and Tupper, that the bylaw should be adopted at the next regular meeting and that Tuesday night's submissions should then be treated on an individual basis. This would probably result in several amendments to the bylaw after its adoption, in order to assure the least possible hardship for Terrace ratepayers and business establishments.

Reeve Goulet was emphatic in his desire to see that all persons affected by the proposed new zoning are given fair treatment, and that every method possible be employed to see that a minimum of hardship and inconvenience occur.

month, bingo and rental revenue showed a slight decline but the general revenue picture remained good.

It was pointed out that any local organization having recreation matters for consideration, should bring them to the recreation commission rather than Municipal Council. The main purpose of the commission is to study requests for assistance in the recreation field and to plan various community recreational outlets.

Notice To Taxpayers

DISTRICT OF TERRACE

The date for addition of 10% penalty on unpaid current taxes is July 5th this year.

This means that the Cashier's wicket at the Municipal office will be very busy for the next few days.

To avoid waiting in line and to assist us in handling the last-minute rush, we are appealing to taxpayers to pay their taxes by cheque wherever possible. Cheques need not be certified if they are mailed in time to be cleared before July 5th.

Annual Cadet Inspection For Terrace Squadron

Members of Terrace Air Cadet Squadron No. 747 passed muster for the third consecutive year as they paraded Wednesday evening for their annual inspection.

The 41 boys were put through their paces by warrant officer Patrick Casey who conducted the exercises in place of F/L Kevan van Herd, commanding officer of the squadron, who was unable to participate due to injuries sustained in a recent air mishap.

Visiting inspection officer was Wing Commander J. Warren of the RCAF station at Comox. He was assisted by F/L Glen John, air cadet liaison officer, RCAF, Vancouver. The airforce officers were accompanied by Mr. B. O. Main, chairman of the B.C. area committee, a civilian organization which is in the sponsorship and administration of the air cadet movement in the province.

Inspection exercises were carried out on the Terrace Co-op parking lot at 7:00 p.m., following which officers, cadets, parents and guests enjoyed a "Pot Luck" dinner provided by the ladies auxiliary to the air cadets in the IOOF hall.

Wing Commander Warren commended the squadron for its outstanding progress during the past year and encouraged the young air cadets to "keep up the good work."

He presented the Royal Canadian Legion (Terrace branch 13) cadet of the year award to F/Sgt. Bruce Douglas, a third year cadet. F/Sgt. Douglas has also been selected to attend a senior leaders course at Camp Borden, Ontario this summer.

LAC Fred Stoba received the award for the most improved first year cadet. The presentation was made by Mrs. Leslie Orr on behalf of the ladies auxiliary to the air cadets.

Winner of a flying training scholarship, entailing six weeks of ground and air instruction at Pitt Meadows beginning in July, was Cpl. Lorne Bass.

Fifteen of the cadets received perfect attendance pins in the presentations, and one cadet, AC2 Raymond Sullivan, was singled out and commended by Wing Commander Warren for his heroic act in saving the life of tiny Derin Majeau after she slipped into Lakelse River during a family fishing trip in May.

Air cadet summer camp plans will take 15 Terrace boys to Penhold, Alberta for a two week training session in July.

There are now more active Air cadet squadrons in Canada (387) than there were during the peak wartime year of 1944.

Multi-Faith Anthology Planned For Centennial

A multi-faith anthology of prayers and hymns has been announced as a nation-wide Centennial project of the Canadian Interfaith Conference.

The anthology, to contain both traditional and modern prayers representative of 31 religious faith groups, is one of seven major Centennial activities planned by the interfaith conference for 1967. The conference, whose chairman is Harry M. Becker of Montreal, was established through a grant from the Centennial commission to promote and co-ordinate religious activities during the Centennial year.

"There is a renewal of interest in religion across the country. We are hoping to find some way of translating the wide divergence of 31 faiths into the vernacular," said Rev. Frank Morgan of Kitchener, explaining the aim of the booklet of interfaith prayers and hymns.

The committee planning the interfaith anthology has agreed that prayers being submitted by any faith group should be between 50 and 75 words in length with themes of thanksgiving, guidance, confession, understanding, adoration, brotherhood and dedication.

There also should be a section of bidding prayers or prayers of meditation — especially from groups who do not use the liturgical form, the submissions committee feels.

A section is to be allotted to the Centennial Hymn, an officially commissioned hymn being composed by the "dean" of English-speaking Canada's composers, Dr. Healey Willan, with French and English lyrics written by French-Canadian poet-diplomat Robert Choquette.

The Canadian Interfaith Conference hopes a substantial number of hymns and prayers submitted will be in Centennial vein. "Some even could be brief enough to be reproduced on restaurant place mats across the land," said conference chairman Mr. Becker.

All prayer and hymn submissions should be sent c/o Mrs. Eve Gilstorf, executive director, Canadian Interfaith Conference, 227 Laurier Avenue West, Suite 204, Ottawa 4, Ont. Deadline for receipt of material in the interfaith office is August 31, 1966.

CENTENNIAL MEMOS

Rev. Charles Jean Seghers, Bishop of Vancouver Island was on a journey of mercy to Alaskan Indians in 1886 when he was murdered by an insane companion. He is often referred to as the Martyred Bishop.

Parking at the side of the road at night is always a dangerous practice, the B.C. Automobile Association warns. If you must pull off the road in an emergency, make certain you are completely off the highway.

THOSE FABULOUS FROST-FREE REFRIGERATORS!

They've got room for everything!

Where to put those tall cartons? That enormous turkey? No problem in the new refrigerators. They're much bigger inside, so there's room for everything. (You won't have to shop so often, will you?) Yet, thanks to clever thin-wall construction, they need no additional floor space. So they fit beautifully into your present kitchen modernizing plans. Shelf arrangements are flexible, freezer compartment is much larger. Plus — in-the-door storage, special meat keepers, butter conditioners — you name it. All this convenience — and here's the frosting. There's no defrosting. Ever. Choose from many models, including new two-door combination refrigerator-freezers.

WANT TO WIN A MINK?

Of course you do. Every woman can use a luxurious mink stole. Your appliance dealer's the man to visit. Simply see a demonstration of the new frost-free refrigerators, then fill out a form telling which feature you like best. And you might win a mink. How's that for a nice way to stay frost-free?

RONALD DOUGLAS

LAWRENCE SLOAT

Two men are seeking nomination as candidates for the Skeena Provincial riding on behalf of the New Democratic Party. They are Ronald Douglas, a resident of Kitimat for the past 12 years, and Lawrence Sloat who also came to this area 12 years ago and resides in Terrace. A candidate will be chosen at the NDP nominating convention scheduled to be held in Kitimat on July 9.

Robert Strachan, Provincial NDP leader, is expected to be in attendance at the convention, as is Frank Howard, MP for Skeena, who is scheduled to act as chairman of the convention.

Report from Parliament

by

Frank

Howard

M.P.

(Skeena)

Recently I moved to introduce a bill into Parliament which would have the effect of ending the longshoremen's strike at the ports of Montreal, Trois Rivières, and Quebec.

The bill, in brief, would allow for the appointment of an administrator to run the affairs of the stevedoring companies; would require that employees return to work; would provide for a wage increase based upon the discussions between the two parties; the dispute; would require a suspension of collective bargaining in good faith; and would provide for the appointment of a commission of inquiry into any matter which remains in dispute after 15 days of bargaining with inquiry only to make recommendations about the matters which could not be resolved and to complete his work by June 1, 1966. The strike has been in effect some five weeks and negotiations appeared to have bogged down. My Bill therefore will have very beneficial results.

Because the government wants to 'save face' it will undoubtedly now double its efforts to settle the strike and to me it will be good for our concern with the serious economic impact that the strike is having.

While my Bill clearly rejects the concept of compulsory arbitration there is no saying what the government will, or would, do to have the courage to act. This uncertainty, which is a secondary result from the Bill, could spur the ties or one of them to an agreement because of the principle "what you work out for you is better than that which might be imposed upon you."

If the government had introduced compulsory arbitration — and put out some feelers about it — it is now clear that it probably won't get the majority of Parliament to agree with it because the principle part of my Bill is collective bargaining in good faith is still the most solid base which to found an agreement. Consequently, even if the government decides to introduce legislation we feel that it will have to overturn its own legislation on which has already been introduced.

All in all feel that the Bill which I introduced is one of the things which will do more to occasion a settlement than any other single item. We hope so, for paramount in our minds is the desire to get the economy back into operation in order that grain shipments can start again; in order that Expo '67 won't be interfered with; in order that employees get back to work; in order that small merchants will be able to obtain goods; in order that — you name it.

BROWNIES GUIDES RANGERS

Kitsumkalum Girl Guides concluded their year's activities with a visit to Franks Dairy farm. The milking process was witnessed by some 22 girls. One of the highlights of the excursion was feeding the little calves. Milk and orange drink were enjoyed before the girls hiked on to Fishers Park where an out-door supper was enjoyed. The hike back made via the Benchland.

On June 8, Brownies of third Kitsumkalum Pack closed activities for the summer with a hike through the Benchland woods. Following this outing a weiner roast was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Kerby. Gail Smith received special thanks for doing a good job of Packie.

Kitsumkalum Brownies enjoyed a treasure hunt and weiner roast at Lakelse picnic site on Saturday, June 4. The final Brownie meeting for the season on June 6 was given over to games and refreshments. As well, a farewell party for Mrs. Francis LaCasse, who is leaving for Prince Rupert. She was presented with a silver spoon. A beautifully decorated cake with "Farewell Brown Owl" in icing, highlighted the refreshments. Fairy Godmother, Mrs. L. Evan, was an important guest at the party.

First Kitsumkalum Brownies have just completed a busy year. Making the most of a nice day on June 10, they climbed Terrace mountain for a group outing. Four girls completing their Golden Bar work, this year were Ruby and Kathy Juba, Darlene Peterson and Glenys Malmgren.

A new folk dance, "Bow Belinda" was performed for mothers who came to see several Brownies enrolled. These girls were Susan Champoux, Gail Maroney, Donna Mercer, Jennifer Pete, Evelyn Pritchard, and Kelly O'Brien.

Sixers served refreshments to both guests and Brownies, and all received a treat from Fairy Godmother V. Seaman.

Several badges have been earned, Terry Sheasby, (House Orderly and Toymaker), Sherri Hamer (Book Lover) and Vivian Kealty (Toymaker).

For close-of-the season the girls journeyed to the hot springs for a swim, then back to the picnic site for a weiner roast.

WHAT'S IN A HOUSE

ALTERING HOUSE PLANS

Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation will not endorse a change in an approved plan if it is likely to alter the lending value on which a National Housing Act loan is based. Minor changes can be made after having first obtained the corporation's approval, but care should be exercised when making changes to plans to ensure that no other part of the structure will be affected by the change. For example, enlarging a room could possibly result in the supporting joists being over their designed span limit.

Many NHA approved plans are available. Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation offers a good selection at nominal prices in a catalogue entitled "Small House Designs" which can be obtained free of charge. This book and many other publications of assistance to a prospective homeowner may be obtained from any CMHC office.

Encouraging Year

GORDON HENRY
... Associates Finance

Gordon Henry, manager of the Terrace branch of Associates Finance Company Ltd., will celebrate a special anniversary this week. His Terrace office, Associates' most northerly situated branch outlet will be one year old on Thursday, June 23.

Associates Finance Company is 47 years older than the Terrace branch, however, having been established in May, 1918 at South Bend, Indiana. The company offers 1st and 2nd mortgages as well as automobile, furniture and debt consolidation loans and all types of personal loans.

Mr. Henry said this week that the first year of operation in Terrace has been "most encouraging" and that he shares his company's confidence in the continued growth and expansion of the Terrace area.

Associates' offices are located upstairs in the Pepsi-Cola Building on Lazelle Avenue and they highlight the mainstay of the Terrace economy — cedar. The entire office decor has been given over to attractive usage of wood, with ultra-modern lighting and brightly upholstered furnishings adding contrast. In addition to manager Gordon Henry, the Terrace branch employs Mrs. Faye Fransson as loan clerk.

tery worker who had gone to sea. It was thought he had deserted his ship at Victoria during the early days of the Fraser gold rush, in 1858. That was about all anyone knew about him. He was digging on Williams Creek in the Cariboo in 1862 and mining records show that he recorded six claims that year and eight the next, with various partners helping with the finances. He was just about disheartened. One report says the famous judge Matthew Baillie Begbie loaned him money at that point because it was less expensive to help him than to pay him way out. Then Billy Barker struck it rich. His share of the strike is said to have been worth $800,000.

Barker took his money and went to Victoria to winter. He met and married a widow and was soon back in Cariboo. But his new wife liked a good time. He told her Barker felt he had to be a big spender and he was known in all the saloons. The result was his money and his wife were soon both gone, although he made many loans too, from a generous heart. His claim ran out of gold. He was reduced to working as a cook. He developed cancer. Dame Fortune loved him briefly and departed leaving him to die in poverty in 1894 in an old man's home in Victoria, when he was 75.

The European Common Market will be among the international bodies taking part at Expo 67.

Health Tips

NEW BABY CARE

Because many mothers are overly anxious with their first baby, the child often becomes cranky, colicky and spoiled, the Canadian Medical Association says. The most common cause of a tense, colicky, unhappy baby is a tense and worried mother. The same mother is usually more relaxed with the second baby and enjoys him, creating a better atmosphere for a contented child.

The CMA advises new mothers to remember that, although babies are very helpless, they are usually hardy. They have relatively simple needs such as bathing, diaper changing, feeding and sleep. They also cry at times, and on these occasions the mother should check to see whether anything is bothering the baby, be reasonably sure there is nothing wrong physically, and let him cry. Picking him up and walking the floor does nothing but add to your problems by spoiling the child.

Another problem that has to be accepted by the new mother is the reduction in time she has to spare for household chores. She should have a schedule, do the best she can with the housework, and not worry about what she leaves undone.

The CMA suggests that the new mother relax and enjoy the baby.

Sleeping Bags Should Be Aired Before Use . . .

Sleeping bags can kill if improperly aired after dry-cleaning in perchloroethylene, the agent used in many coin-operated cleaning units.

An article in "This Week In Public Health," a Massachusetts department of public health publication carried the following message of warning recently:

"Last summer in Minnesota, a 16-year-old boy died after sleeping in a bag that had been cleaned in perchloroethylene in a coin-operated unit. According to the boy's mother and newspaper reports, the bag was left at an attendant-operated unit and picked up the same day.

"It was alleged that the bag was received in a roll and put in the car trunk. The boy is said to have unrolled the bag in a pup tent and to have slept in it approximately eight hours. The boy vomited without having regained consciousness and was in convulsions when found. The county coroner, an

M.D., stated that autopsy showed death was caused by the solvent.

"Congestion in the boy's lungs and internal organs, especially the kidneys, was attributable to the chemical, as were multiple blisters on the body. His report states that death was due to pneumonitis due to uremia from inhaled perchloroethylene."

Though the deodorizer cycle of cleaning machines is supposed to eliminate this hazard, some of smaller coin-operated units are inadequate to deodorize the bulk of a sleeping bag.

All bags should be well aired after cleaning and again before being put into use.

Also, several cases of severe rash from chemical burns due to home applied water-proofing compounds have been noted.
